School Trustees

The house of delegates passed the senate bill providing for the county unit system for school trustees. The final vote was 55 to 38.

Delegates Parke P. Deans, of Isle of Wight, and C. R. Warren, of Pittsylvania, spoke for the bill. Delegates R Lindsay Gordon, of Louisa; George B. Keezell, of Buckingham; T. W. Ozlin, of Lunenburg; and J. M. Hurt, of Nottoway; opposed the bill, taking the position that in cutting down the number of trustees in each district from three to one the measure placed too much power in the hands of one man. They also spoke in favor of having the trustees elected by the people.

An amendment providing for the election of the trustees by the people was defeated by a vote of 38 ayes to 56 noes.

Under this new plan, all school affairs will be managed by the county school board which will be composed of one member from each magisterial district in the county. This board will manage the school affairs in a similar manner to that in which the supervisors manage the county affairs.

Tobacco Men Active

A meeting will be held at South Boston on April 5th, by director T. C. Watkins, Jr, for the purpose of a conference on the acquisition of suitable warehouses and equipment for handling the 1922 crop of tobacco assigned to the Growers' Association. Representatives from Appomattox and Pamplin should be on hand to look after the interests of these markets. The association will also need the services of experienced warehouse men. Richmond, Virginia, will be the financial and executive selling headquarters, with Oliver J Sands who is president of American National Bank, as chief executive officer in charge.

Frank D. Williams, of Richmond, whose skill in handling the sun cured pool of Virginia brought the first success to organized tobacco growers of that state was chosen manager of the dark leaf department of the Tobacco Growers Cooperative Association with headquarters at Richmond. Mr Williams is an ex president of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, a director of First National Bank of Richmond, and a leaf dealer with experience covering many years in which he has been emminently successful. Mr Williams will be called upon to handle not only all problems relating to dark leaf in the marketing association, but his wide experience in the tobacco world is expected to prove invaluable in helping to guide the policies of the organized growers in the Carolinas and Virginia.

The prospects for sane profitable tobacco growing is encouraging.

A Proclamation

Whereas, The bodies of fifteen hundred soldiers, sailors, marines and nurses, the last whose remains are to be transported, are now en route to this their beloved country, for whose sake they laid down their lives in the great struggle for humanity, and

Whereas, Funeral services over the bodies of these, our heroes, will be held in Brooklyn, New York, at 3 o'clock the afternoon of next Sunday, April 2nd, 1922, in tribute to their memory, and the memory of their forty four thousands comrades whose bodies have already been laid to rest in the soil of our country, and Therefore, I, E. Lee Trinkle, Governor of Virginia, do hereby designate the hour from 3 to 4 o'clock p. m., next Sunday, April 2nd, 1922, to be observed as an hour of reverence and respect, and I urge that all church bells be tolled at intervals during that hour, and that all flags unfurled on that day be hung in half-mast, in tribute to our heroic dead.

Buckingham

The Deacons and Elders along with the pastor of Maysville Presbyterian church met at the home of Judge and Mrs A. S. Hall on Friday of last week and made up a report of the church and Sunday School Said reports when completed are to be sent to the Presbytery which meets at Orange, Va, on April 18th.

Mrs. Roy Rogers Coston and Mrs. Hattie Haskins Eubank, both of whom are living near Maysville, N C., have gotten letters of dismisal from the Presbyterian church here and will unite with the Methodist church in N. C., as there is no Presbyterian church near enough for them to attend.

Various are the comments made anent to the radical changes that have been made in school laws. Buckingham has six magesterial districts and under the new order of things there will be only six trustees in the county and the six trustees will control all the schools in the county.

Farmers surely got busy last week plowing, burning plant beds and cleaning up land.

A man named Beasley living in State River district swore out a warrant charging several people with having set fire to a dwelling house on the land of Mr. Beasley. At the trial it was asserted that threats had been made by certain persons that they would burn a house down on a place that had been occupied by this man Beasley.

Mrs. W. Lee Patteson has gone to spend some time with her daughter, Mrs. R. B. Hudgins, near New Canton.

The pupils and teachers of St. Andrews school have raised $9 for the Near East fund and the Sunday school at the Glover school house raised as much as $8 for the same purpose.

There was a magistrates court held at Branch's store on the Wingina road March 25th, which was largely attended by citizens living near Wingina.

The twin boys, Charlie and Tom, sons of Mr. and Mrs T. B. Hall were quite sick several days last week.

Mrs P. P Glover is selling eggs from R I. R hens at $1 a dozen.

A Richmond bank wrote me that it was a rule now that if a depositer drew as many as five checks in any one month when the balance to his credit was less than $50 that he or she would have to pay to the bank the sum of fifty cents and that according to this ruling I had been charged with 50c for the current month.

It is awful to hear a man use cuss words, but when women use profanity it is simply horrid. A country is no better than the female population make it. No law is any stronger than the sentiment of the people make it.

Since the death of Mr. C. B. Denton the store has remained closed and I hear that it is probable that an administrator will have to be appointed. Under existing law the widow will be appointed administratrix if she offers to serve.

Mr. D. W. Patteson has been carrying the mail of late in his car.

Six teams went from Cumberland county into Nelson crossing James River at Wingina and coming home heavily loaded with corn which was bought at $3 50 a barrel.

"I Have Lost The Receipt"

Thus spoke the man who was asked to settle a bill that he claimed to have paid a month previously. He had placed the receipt in his pocket with other papers and now could not find it.

He had paid cash, so could do nothing except pay the bill a second time.

That man learned a lesson from this incident—he now pays all his bills by check. In case of dispute about a paid bill, he can now use his cancelled checks as proof of payment.

Do you pay by check? It is the safe and businesslike way.

THE BEGINNING OF A BANK-NOTE

Little Marcia's baby dress though made of the finest linen was ultimately worn threadbare. One day it landed in the rag bag and was sold to the junk dealer. When the rag sorter touched the discarded garment he detected in a flash the fine quality of the flax and set it aside for a journey to the Bureau of Engraving and Printing at Washington. Eventually it became legal tender—a bank-note. Just how is told in one of the beautiful booklets about Our Government which we are sending each month to those interested.
